

Appendix 2: Charges for Video Data of National Museum of Taiwan History

Type	Use or scope		Charges	Remark
Nonprofit	Public release	Not for making profit	NT$1,000 for domestic use	In video or episode; every three minutes is a unit of pricing. Segments less than three minutes are counted as three minutes.
For-profit	Public release	Theater	NT$2,000 for domestic use	In video or episode; every three minutes is a unit of pricing. Segments less than three minutes are counted as three minutes.
	Public broadcast	Over-the-air television, cable radio, television or satellite channels	Program	NT$4,000 for domestic use	In video or episode; every minute is a unit of pricing. Segments less than a minute are counted as three minutes.
			Commercial	NT$2,000 for domestic use	In video or episode; every ten seconds is a unit of pricing. Segments less than ten seconds are counted as three minutes.
		The Internet	NT$4,000 for domestic use	In video or episode; every minute is a unit of pricing. Segments less than a minute are counted as three minutes.
	Release	Home edition	NT$2,000 for domestic use	In video or episode; every minute is a unit of pricing. Segments less than a minute are counted as three minutes.
		Public presentation edition	NT$4,000 for domestic use	1. In video or episode; every minute is a unit of pricing. Segments less than a minute are counted as three minutes. 2. When the public presentation edition is released, there is no charge for the home edition.
Note 1: For use by foreign entities or individuals, the charges shall be multiplied by 1.5 and then converted into US dollars. Note 2: 1. Nonprofit use means that the use of the material is for academic research, public welfare purposes and is not involved in selling, or involving selling but not with the main objective of making profits. 2. For-profit use means use for profit-making purposes and is not a nonprofit user mentioned above. Note 3: The Museum may waive fees for nonprofit applications for public interest or academic research purposes.					