

Table of Labor Occupational Accident Insurance Medical Care Benefit
Item and Payment Standards

No.	Item	Payment Standard	Notes
1	Diagnostic Fee of Initial Diagnosis of Occupational Injury/Disease	30 points will be additionally given to the application according to the code of the National Health Insurance to pay the reasonable amount of diagnosis fees and emergency diagnosis fees for outpatient clinics in primary NHI institutions.	The surcharge for outpatient examination fees and emergency examination fees (such as the surcharge for departments, evening clinics, holidays, national holidays, remote mountainous and outer islands, emergency hospitals in areas with insufficient emergency medical resources, and regional hospitals) shall be calculated based on the percentage for the application of benefits of the National Health Insurance.
2	Diagnostic Fee for Initial Diagnosis, and the First to Third follow-up Diagnosis	Calculated at a double amount based on the reasonable amount of diagnosis fees and emergency diagnosis fees for outpatient clinics in primary NHI institutions.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Only after the insured has been diagnosed with an occupational disease can he apply for the expenses of such Item. 2. The diagnosis shall be performed by a specialist in occupational medicine.
3	Consultation Fee for Diagnosis of Occupational Medicine	1,031 points.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Only after the insured has been diagnosed with an occupational disease can he apply for the expenses of such Item. 2. This Item shall be performed by a specialist in the Department of Occupational Medicine, who shall fill in the occupational disease

			assessment report for labor occupational accident insurance and sign the name and affix the stamp, and archive the relevant medical record for future reference. 3. When applying for the consultation fee of this Item in the diagnosis and treatment, the fee for the initial diagnosis and the first to the third follow-up diagnosis in the occupational disease out-patient clinic of Item 2 will not be reimbursed.
4	Meal Expenses during Hospitalization due to Occupational Injury or Disease	General Meal Fee: 65 points daily General Therapeutic Meal Fee: 80 points daily	The number of reimbursable days for the same hospitalization shall not exceed 30 days.