PROTOCOL ON INFORMATION SHARING AND COOPERATION

TAIWAN

AUSTRALIA

SECURITIES AND FUTURES
COMMISSION OF TAIWAN

AUSTRALIAN SECURITIES AND INVESTMENTS COMMISSION

Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation
THE SECURITIES AND FUTURES COMMISSION OF TAIWAN AND THE AUSTRAL-IAN SECURITIES AND INVESTMENTS COMMISSION

RECOGNISING, in the light of the increasing international activity in securities markets, the need for mutual co-operation and consultation in order to enhance investor protection, promote the integrity of financial markets, and facilitate the performance of their respective functions and powers;

CONSIDERING the importance of ensuring compliance with, and enforcement of the laws and regulations governing securities, which are applicable in Taiwan and Australia; and

WILLING therefore to establish the fullest mutual assistance by providing a framework for co-operation, including channels for communication, increased mutual understanding, the exchange of information and investigative assistance permitted by the laws and practices of Taiwan and Australia;

RESOLVE:

To enter into the following understanding:

1.Definitions

For the purpose of this Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation:

uthority' means:

- (a) the Securities and Futures Commission of Taiwan; or
- (b) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission.

The Securities and Futures Commission of Taiwan is the national securities regulator and is established under the Organizational Statute of the Securities and Futures Commission, Ministry of Finance. The Securities and Futures Commission of Taiwan is responsible for regulation and supervision of issuance and trading of securities and futures markets. The Securities and Futures Commission of Taiwan's ability to exercise powers to obtain evidence on behalf of overseas securities commissions or similar bodies is governed by the Securities and Exchange Law, the Futures Trading Law and the Organizational Statute of the Securities and Futures Commission, Ministry of Finance.

The Australian Securities and Investments Commission is the national corporate and securities regulator established under section 7 of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001. The Australian Securities and Investments Commission is responsible for the administration and enforcement of the Corporations Act 2001 and the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001, which provide for the regulation of corporations, securities and futures markets and intermediaries, and investor protection in relation to financial services and products. The Australian Securities and Investments Commission's ability to exercise coercive powers on behalf of foreign regulators is governed by the Mutual Assistance in Business Regulation Act 1992.

2.General Principles

- 2.1 The purpose of this Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation is to establish within the limits provided by the law a framework for mutual assistance between the Authorities in order to protect investors, promote the integrity of financial markets, facilitate the performance of the Authorities' functions, and ensure compliance with the laws and regulations governing securities, which are applicable in Taiwan and Australia.
- 2.2 To the extent permitted by the laws and practices of Taiwan and Australia, the Authorities will use reasonable efforts to provide each other with any information, documents or evidence that are discovered which gives rise to a suspicion of a breach, or anticipated breach, of the rules or laws of the other Authority—jurisdiction.
- 2.3 The Authorities intend to ensure that the fullest mutual assistance is provided within the terms of the Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation.
- 2.4 The Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation does not :
- (a) modify or supersede any laws or regulations applicable in Taiwan or Australia;
 - (b) affect the ability of the Authorities to exchange non-confidential information;
 - (c) create a binding obligation under international law;
 - (d) create any enforceable rights;
 - (e) affect any other Agreements entered into by the Authorities.

3.Scope of Assistance

- 3.1 Mutual assistance will be provided in the following areas:
- (a) insider trading, market manipulation and other fraudulent and manipulative practices in relation to securities;
 - (b) enforcement of the laws and regulations relating to securities business;

- (c) ensuring that participants in securities business promote high standards of fair dealing and integrity in their conduct of that business;
- (d) rights of investors to obtain timely and accurate information about securities, and disclosure of interests in securities of issuers;
- (e) the duties of issuers of and offerors for securities to make full and fair disclosure of information material to investors.

3.2 Assistance available under this Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation includes:

- (a) providing information from files of the requested Authority;
- (b) obtaining evidence and documents from persons; and
- (c) taking statements from persons.

4. Requests for Assistance

4.1 Requests for assistance must be made in writing and addressed to the requested Authority—contact officer listed in Appendix A.

4.2 To facilitate assistance, the requesting Authority should specify:

- (a) a description in general terms of the subject matter of the request and of the facts of the matter including:
 - (i) the conduct under investigation;
 - (ii) any periods of time to which the request relates; and
 - (iii) the names, and last known addresses, of individuals or companies referred to in the request;
- (b) the assistance sought, such as (where possible) any particulars which will assist the requested Authority in complying with the request, including specific questions to be asked of witnesses, or a list of documents sought;
- (c) the purpose for which assistance is sought;
- (d) a copy of the laws or regulations which may have been violated, and a statement of the way in which the facts give rise to a belief or suspicion that the laws or regulation may have been violated;

- (e) a statement as to whether the requesting Authority has sought, or could conveniently seek, from another source the information, evidence or documents to which the request relates;
 - (f) the purpose for which the information, evidence or documents is to be used or may at any future time be used;
 - (g) the desired time period and means for the reply and, where appropriate, the urgency of the request;
 - (h) any other matters specified by the laws and regulations in the jurisdiction of the requested Authority.
- 4.3 Any document or other material provided in response to a request under the Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation and any copies thereof must be returned on request, to the extent permitted by law.
- 4.4 The Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation does not affect the ability of the Authorities to obtain information from persons on a voluntary basis, provided that any existing procedures in an Authority's jurisdiction for the provision of such information are observed.

5 Execution of Requests

- 5.1 Each request will be assessed by the requested Authority to determine whether assistance can be provided under the terms of the Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation. If a request cannot be accepted completely, the requested Authority will consider whether any other assistance can be given (for instance, through channels for mutual assistance in criminal matters).
- 5.2 In deciding whether to accept or decline a request the requested Authority will take into account whether:
- (a) executing the request would violate legal requirements in the jurisdiction of the requested Authority;
 - (b) the request involves an assertion of jurisdiction not recognised by the requested Authority;
 - (c) it would be contrary to the public interest to give the assistance sought; and
 - (d) the information or assistance would be more readily obtained through other channels.

6 Permissible Use of Information

- 6.1 Unless otherwise agreed to by the requested Authority the information supplied will be used solely for the purpose of:
- (a) securing compliance with, or enforcing, the rule or law specified in the request by initiating or assisting in criminal prosecution arising out the breach or suspected breach of such law;
 - (b) conducting or assisting in civil or administrative proceedings, including proceedings which arise out of any actual, suspected or anticipated breach of the rule or law specified in the request, and brought by the Authorities or other law enforcement or regulatory agencies within the jurisdictions of Taiwan or Australia; or
 - (c) taking regulatory action or imposing regulatory requirements within the areas set out above.

7 Confidentiality

- 7.1 Each Authority shall keep confidential, to the extent permitted by law, requests or communications of information, made within the framework of this Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation, the contents of such requests, and any other matters arising during the implementation of this Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation, including consultations between the Authorities.
- 7.2 In all cases, the requesting Authority shall keep confidential, to the extent permitted by law, any information received pursuant to this Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation to the same extent as such information would be kept confidential by the Authority which has furnished the information.
- 7.3 If a requesting Authority becomes aware that information, statements, evidence or documents provided under the Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation may be subject to a legally enforceable demand to disclose, the requesting Authority will, to the extent permitted by law, inform the requested Authority of the demand.
- 7.4 Unless the request provides otherwise, the confidentiality provisions of the Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation shall not prevent the Authorities from informing another law enforcement or regulatory agency within the jurisdictions of Taiwan or Australia of the request or the passing of information or of the information received pursuant to a request to such agencies, provided that:

- (a) the agency is responsible for prosecuting, regulating or enforcing rules or laws falling within the areas set out in clause 3;
- (b) that the purpose of passing that information to the agency falls within the areas set out in clause 6;
- (c) the information is provided on the understanding that it may not be used or disclosed by the agency except for that purpose; and
- (d) the requesting Authority has provided an undertaking in relation to the information requested, if required by the law of the requested Authority— jurisdiction, in such terms as the law requires.

8 Consultation and Disputes

8.1 The Authorities may consult informally, at any time, about a request or proposed request.

8.2 The Authorities may consult and review this Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation with the aim of improving its operation and resolving any disputes which arise.

8.3 The Authorities will consult in the event of any dispute over the meaning of any term used in this Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation.

9 Amendments to the Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation

9 The Authorities may consult and may revise the terms of the Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation upon mutual agreement.

10 Termination

10.1 The Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation shall continue to have effect until terminated by any one of the Authorities by giving 30 days written notice to the other Authority of its termination.

10.2 If an Authority gives notice that this Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation is to be terminated, the Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation will continue to have effect with respect to any requests for assistance made before the date of notification.

11 Contact Officers

11 All communications between the Authorities should be between the contact officers listed in Appendix A, unless otherwise agreed.

12 Entry into Effect

12 This Protocol on Information Sharing and Cooperation will be effective from the date of its signature by the Securities and Futures Commission of Taiwan and the Australian Securities and Investments Commission.

Signed, on the 20th day of May (or new date), 2003, in duplicate, in English.
