A Letter from Mr. K. T. Hu, Economic Counselor, Embassy of the Republic of China to Canada, to Mr. R.Y. Grey, Director, International Economic Relations Department of Finance, Canada.

May 27, 1966

Mr. R.Y. Grey, Director,
International Economic Relations,
Government of Finance,
Government of Canada,
Ottawa, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Grey:

I have the honor to refer to recent discussions in Taipei and Ottawa between officials of the Government of the Republic of China and the Government of Canada concerning the request of Canadian Government that the Chinese Government apply restraints on exports of certain products to Canada.

As a result of these discussions and pursuant to the provisions of the Long-Term Arrangement regarding International Trade in Cotton Textiles (hereafter referred to as "the Arrangement") the Chinese Government agrees to restrain exports to Canada of those products specified in the attached Annex to the levels indicated therein during the two-year period from July 1, 1966 to June 30, 1968.

It is the understanding of the Chinese Governments that the Chinese and Canadian Governments shall consult with each other on any question arising from the implementation of this agreement of either Government deems such consultation necessary.

It is further understood that the Canadian Government may request consultations regarding further export restraints under the provisions of the Arrangement, should circumstances warrant this

, and that the Chinese Government may request consultations concerning the removal or modifications of export restraints under the provisions of the Arrangement, should circumstances warrant this.

Would you please confirm that foregoing is acceptable to the Canadian Government.

Yours very truly,

(Signed)

K.T. Hu
