I Letter from Mr. Cheng Pao-nan, Chinese Ambassador, to Dr. Umberto Garrone, Vice-Director General For Commercial Agreements, Italian Ministry for Foreign Trade.

29 December, 1967

Dear Sir,

In response to the Note Verbale of the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs dated 28 October 1967, the Government of the Republic of China accepted the invitation of Italian Government to establish consultations in accordance with Article 3, paragraph 1 of the Long Term Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Cotton Textiles.

A series of meetings both of a technical and general nature took place in Rome, Italy, between December 14-30, 1967.

These meetings were held in a friendly atmosphere and took into account the peculiar position of each of the contracting parties. The Italian Government representatives voiced their concern at the rapid increase of export of cotton textiles from the Republic of China. There is now a better understanding of the situation relating to the exports of Cotton textiles from the Republic of China to Italy. Accordingly, the two delegations of the contracting parties to the Arrangement have agreed as follows:

- 1) The Government of the Republic of China taking into account the desire of the Italian Government undertake:
  - a) that their shipments of cotton textiles in bleached and unbleached to Italy in 1968 would be significantly less in accordance with the spirit of the Long Term Arrangement;
  - b) to space their shipments so as not to disturb the Italian cotton textile manufacturing industry;
  - c) to maintain export prices not at undue variance with those of other exporting countries;
  - d) to furnish to the appropriate Italian authorities with information of every shipment in the month of cotton textiles by weight beginning from the shipments of January, 1968.
- 2) The Government of the Republic of China and Italy agree to enter into consultations should either party to the Arrangement deem desirable. In any event a consultation will take place before 1 April, 1968.
