

法規名稱：EXCHANGE OF NOTES BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, AMENDING AND EXTENDING COTTON TEXTILE AGREEMENT (AD.1971.08.31)

簽訂日期：民國 60 年 08 月 31 日

I Note from Mr. Julius L. Katz, Deputy Assistant Secretary for International Resources and food policy, to Mr. James C.H. Shen, Ambassador of the Republic of China to United States of America

August 31,1971

Excellency:

I have the honor to refer to the cotton textile agreement between our two Government effected by exchange of notes on October 12,1967, as amended and extended by exchange of notes on December 22,1970 and June 29,1971. As a result of discussions between representatives of our two Governments, I have the honor to propose that the aforementioned agreement be further amended and extended as provided in the following paragraphs:

A Paragraph 1 is amended by changing the first sentence to read as follows: "This agreement shall extend through December 31, 1971."

B The last sentence of Paragraph 7 and subparagraph (d) of paragraph 15 are deleted.

If the foregoing proposal is acceptable to your Government, this note and Your Excellency's note of acceptance on behalf of the Government of the Republic of China shall constitute an amendment and extension of the cotton textile agreement effected by exchange of notes October 12,1967, as amended and extended by exchange of notes of December 22,1970 and June 29,1971.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

For the Secretary of State:

(Signed)

Julius L. Katz

His Excellency

James C.H. Shen,
Chinese Ambassador.

II Note from Mr. James C.H. Shen, Chinese Ambassador, to Mr. William P. Rogers, Secretary of State, United States of America

Excellency:

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your note of today's date which reads as follows:

“I have the honor to refer to the cotton textile agreement between our two Governments effected by exchange of notes on October 12, 1967, as amended and extended by exchange of notes on December 22, 1970 and June 29, 1971. As a result of discussions between representatives of our two Governments, I have the honor to propose that the aforementioned agreement be further amended and extended as provided in the following paragraphs:

A Paragraph 1 is amended by changing the first sentence to read as follows: “This agreement shall extend through December 31, 1971.”

B The last sentence of Paragraph 7 and subparagraph (d) of paragraph 15 are deleted.

If the foregoing proposal is acceptable to your Government, this note and Your Excellency's note of acceptance on behalf of the Government of the Republic of China shall constitute an amendment and extension of the cotton textile agreement effected by exchange of notes October 12, 1967, as amended and extended by exchange of notes of December 22, 1970 and June 29, 1971.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.”

In reply, I have the honor to state that the Government of the Republic of China concurs in the proposals quoted above and agrees that your note and the present reply thereto shall be regarded as constituting an agreement between our two Governments on this matter.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

(Signed)

James C.H. Shen

Ambassador of China

The Honorable William P. Rogers
