Dear Mr. Lin

IMPEMENTATION OF BILATERAL INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY ARRANGEMENT

I refer to the Arrangement between the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office, New Zealand and the New Zealand Commerce and Industrial Office on the Reciprocal. Protection and Enforcement of Copyright ("the Arrangement")

The Arrangement was signed in August 1998 and in a letter dated 12 October 1998 we received notification from you of the completion of the legal procedures required for the Arrangement to enter into effect.

There were three major steps which had to be completed before this Arrangement could come into effect in New Zealand, Firstly, an Order in Council had to be promulgated to give domestic effect to the Arrangement: the Copyright (Application to Other Countries) Amendment Order 2000. Secondly, the Order in Council had to be gazetted for 28 days prior to coming into force. It was published in the Gazette on 9 November 2000 and came into force on the 7 December 2000. Finally, in accordance with Paragraph 8 (1) of the Arrangement, both signatories must notify each other in writing of the completion of legal procedures necessary for the implementation of this Arrangement.

I am therefore pleased to notify you that, having completed the procedures necessary for the implementation of this Arrangement and having already received notification from you to similar effect, then in accordance with Paragraph 8(1), the Arrangement will enter into effect on the date of this letter of notification.

Please find attached a copy of the Order in Council.

Yours sincerely

Paul Ash
