終止日期：民國 84 年 09 月 30 日

The Fruit Trade Conference between Taipei Mission in Korea and Korean Mission in Taipei was held in Seoul, on May 30-JUNE 2, 1994. It was presided over jointly by Mr. Chang, Shaw-Jiun, Chief Delegate of the delegation of Taipei Mission in Korea and Mr. Kang, Gwang-won, Chief Delegate of the delegation of Korean Mission in Taipei.

The conference was conducted in a cordial atmosphere based on the friendly relations between both sides. At the end of the conference, the two sides mutually agreed as follows:

1. Countertrade in 1994-1995

Both sides mutually agreed on the countertrade to promote the fruit trade between the two sides and decided the details as follows;

- (1) The Korean side would export 5,500 metric tons of Fuji apples and 2,000 metric tons of pears to the Taipei side, and Taipei side would export 12,000 metric tons of bananas, 2,800 metric tons of garlics, 5,000 metric tons of onions, 750 metric tons of litchies and 600 metric tons of ponkans to the Korean side. Quantities of each commodity shall be allocated according to the crop condition of both sides. Countertrade on litchies and ponkans shall be effective only when Korean plant quarantine authorities accept the treatment methods and conditions suggested by the Taipei side.
- (2) The period of countertrade shall be from June 1, 1994 to September 30, 1995.
- (3) The Korean Agriculture & Fisheries Food Trade Association shall be the organization in charge of Taiwan fruit importation and Korean fruit exportation. And the Agricultural and Fishery Marketing Corporation in Korea shall be the organization in charge of garlic and onion importation. The Taiwan Provincial Fruit Marketing Cooperative shall be the organization in charge of Taiwan fruit exportation and Korean fruit importation. For Taiwan garlic and onion, Taipei mission in Korea shall designate the organization in charge of exportation and notify Korean mission in Taipei as soon as possible.
- (4) The commodities traded by both sides should be in conformity with trade and quarantine regulations and orders of the two sides.
- (5) The value of exported commodities should be determined on a C&F basis.
- (6) Other terms and conditions of the trade such as varieties,

- quality standards, price conditions (FOE or C&F), payment, packaging, delivery time, etc. should be negotiated by the designated trading organization of both sides.
- (7) Both sides also agreed on the following terms and conditions for the smooth implementation of countertrade.
- 1) The Taipei side requested that the Korean side continue its adoption of preferential duties on bananas imported from the Taipei side. The Korean side promised to apply the current preferential duties for the importation of bananas.
  - 2) In order to stabilize the banana trade between both sides, the price of bananas for export to the Korean side shall be maintained at an appropriate level, taking into consideration the prices of the Taipei side's bananas exported to other countries.
  - 3) The Taipei side requested the Korean side that Korean apples and pears should be in conformity with the trade standards in quality. The Korean side promised to make the best effort in this regard.
  - 4) The Taipei side requested the Korean side to dispatch quarantine inspectors to Taipei for the survey on plant quarantine problems. The Korean side promised to dispatch inspectors and conduct a joint survey with Taipei inspectors. For litchies, joint survey should be conducted by the end of June, 1994 and before October 31, 1994 for ponkans. For litchies and ponkans, the Taipei side promised to submit the recent plant quarantine test result with its manual to the Korean quarantine authorities not later than June 15. The Korean side promised to dispatch plant quarantine inspectors to conduct joint inspections of bananas bound for the Korea side upon the request of the Taipei side.
2. Both sides confirmed that the purpose of this conference is only to resume the fruit trade between the two sides. In this respect, Taipei side allocated 4,000 metric tons of apple quota which would apply from June 1, 1994 to September 30, 1995.
