AGREEMENT

Dr. Khaled Y. Al-Khalaf, Director General of Saudi Arabian Standards Organization (SASO), Kindom of Saudi Arabia (KSA) and his delegation, at the invitation of Mr. Y. C. Huang, Director General of the Bureau of Commodity Inspection and Quarantine (BCIQ), Ministry of Economic Affairs, Republic of China, visited Taipei, Republic of China (ROC) August 11--20, 1987. A meeting was held on August 17, 1987 in Taipei between the two parties for discussion on the proposal of BCIQ requesting SASO to delegate the authority to BCIQ for screening and approval of "Certificate of Conformity" for electrical appliances shipped from ROC to KSA. An agreement was reached as follows :

--SASO agrees in principle with the said proposal of BCIQ. However, a transitional period of time, about one year, shall be first established. During this time, the ROC manufacturers shall apply to BCIQ directly for the " Certificate of Conformity " with necessary documents. BCIQ will examine the documents of the applicants and then transmit them to SASO if these are fully in conformity with SASO requirements.

SASO agrees to give priority in handling the applications, about two weeks, and will return the approved documents to the ROC manufacturers through BCIQ.

--BCIQ will collect fees from the ROC manufacturers for application of " Certificate of Conformity " according to the rates set by SASO and remit the total amount to SASO.

--After the one-year transitional period, SASO and BCIQ shall r-review the result of the implementation of the agreement. If both sides are satisfied with the result, SASO will delegate full authority to BCIQ for screening application and approval of " Certificate of Conformity " for all shipments of electrical appliances from ROC to KSA. Details of the new authorization may be discussed further then.
