This appendix identifies specific services to be provided by AIT for the CCNAA, in accordance with Annex III to NAT--I--845.

ARTICLE I -- Description of Services

The AIT will provide one specialist who is an Automated Radar Terminal System (ARTS III) and Display expert on a temporary duty basis (TDY) to travel to Taipei for a period of approximately one week. This specialist will assess the feasibility of whether ARTS III displays can reasonably be made compatible with the existing air traffic control automation equipment system. AIT will arrange for the specialist to depart for Taiwan on a mutually agreed date.

Should additional services be required, the date and length of service will be provided for by mutual agreement between AIT and CCNAA, and will be appropriately documented by an amendment to this Appendix.

ARTICLE II - Manpower Requirements and Cost Estimates

A The estimated total cost for the AIT technical assistance is U

.S.$9,100, which includes salary and benefits, transportation, per diem, AIT/Washington support and 12 percent administrative overhead charge.

B Should additional services be required, the date and length of such service will be by mutual consent between AIT and CCNAA, and related cost estimates will be documented in an amendment to this appendix or in a separate appendix.
