The Embassy of the Republic of China (Taiwan) presents its compliments to the Department of State for Foreign Affairs of the Republic of The Gambia and has the honour to inform the latter that the Agreement of Medical Cooperation between the Government of the Republic of China (Taiwan) and the Government of the Republic of The Gambia will expire on 18th October 2005. Through initial consultations between the Embassy and the Office of the President of the Republic of The Gambia it is agreed in principle that the said Agreement be renewed on the same terms for another five years. The Embassy is, therefore, instructed by the Government of the Republic of China (Taiwan) to suggest in accordance with Article 7 of the said Agreement that both parties renew the Agreement through the Exchange of Notes.

The Embassy of the Republic of China (Taiwan) has the further honour to request that, the Department of State for Foreign Affairs confirm the Government of The Gambias acceptance of the aforesaid suggestion so as to complete the Exchange of Notes and enable the Agreement to be in force henceforth until 18th October 2010.

The Embassy of the Republic of China (Taiwan) avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Department of State for Foreign Affairs of the Republic of The Gambia the assurances of its highest consideration.
