Explanation :

1. This chart is formulated pursuant to Article 71, Paragraph 2 of the Judges Act.
2. Laws and regulations governing the remuneration of political appointee shall apply mutatis mutandis to special political appointees. The points of pay of a permanent judge are converted from the salary out of matching the permanent judge's points of pay with the same points of pay in the salary conversion criteria of the Remuneration Chart for Civil Servants.
3. Laws and regulations governing the remuneration of political appointee shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Secretary General of the Judicial Yuan not transferred from the bench or the prosecutors office.
4. The salary level for a tenured judge is divided into twenty grades; for a probationary judge, nine grades; and for an assistant judge, six grades.
